

WOODSTOCK, VIRGINIA.

FRIDAY, MAY 20, 1910.

ELLYSON MAY RUN.

Richmond, Va., May 17.—There are many indications that Lieutenant-Governor Ellyson may be a candidate for Governor in the coming gubernatorial campaign, thereby adding to the complications surrounding the fight for this coveted office, which has already been entered by Henry C. Stewart, of Russell; H. St. George Tucker, of Lexington; Congressman Carter Glass, of Lynchburg; Roswell Page, of Hanover, and possibly others.

Speaker Byrd's Letter on the Income Tax.

By far the most concise, forceful and unanswerable statement of reasons for rejection of the proposed income tax amendment by the States has just been furnished by Richard Evelyn Byrd, Speaker of the House of Delegates of Virginia, in a timely letter of explanation to the Sun, which deserves to be reproduced in every American newspaper.

In our judgment the action of the Virginia Assembly in union with the determination of New York at the recommendation of Governor Hughes has conclusively defeated any hope of the passage of the amendment by the requisite three-fourths of the States of the Union. The objection of the Governor of New York was too largely technical and this weight can be met by the counter weight of the opinion of Senator Root and the Attorney-General. But the grounds of opposition cited by Speaker Byrd are fundamental and beyond refutation if the principle asserted is to be maintained.—Nashua Telegraph.

Senator Daniel's Condition.

No change, other than continued improvement in Senator Daniel's condition, was evident up to three o'clock this afternoon. Dr. Vaughn in his bulletin last night said: "There is nothing of a special nature to report in connection with Senator Daniel's condition tonight. He is fully as well as he has been for several days past. He slept well last night and has slept several hours today. He refused tonight to be a party to quoting from familiar authors, but in doing so gave other clear evidence of returning to a natural state. He has known by name those who have visited him today.—Lynchburg Advance, May 16.

Observe "New Market" Day.

Preclaimer of Glory of God.

"The comet is an exhibition of the majesty and mystery of God, and is doubtless intended to warn all mankind periodically of the brevity and uncertainty of human existence and the need for prompt preparation for eternity. Beyond this it is valueless in the religious world, and becomes harmful when viewed with terroristic wonder and superstitious awe."

Thus speaking at Bethany Chapel in Washington Sunday night, the Rev. Zed H. Copp, formerly of Winchester, maintained that Halley's comet was not a harbinger of the "crack of doom," but a kind of stellar celebration of the glory of God.

Grover Downing and Downing White, judges of the election at Flery Run precinct, in Fauquier county, Va., who were indicted by the grand jury at the March term of the Circuit Court of Fauquier county for alleged violation of the election laws and contested last year, in which M. M. Green was defeated for the legislative nomination by J. M. Price, appeared before Magistrates Kincheloe and Baker. Downing and White pleaded guilty to the charge of polling votes that were not actually cast and were each fined $100 and costs. White was not found guilty on account of not having served as a judge at the election. The case has attracted widespread attention on account of the fact that had a correct vote been returned from Flery Run precinct when these men served as judges, Hon. M. M. Green would have been elected to the Legislature.

DON'T OVERLOOK GOOD THINGS

The Man who invented the hinged collar button and got rich by it, saw a good thing that had been within six inches of millions of men's eyes for fifty years.

A young chap came into the store Saturday—wanted to know the minute he got inside whether we had such and such a suit that was in the window on Monday. No it was sold—"I knew it" he said "A friend of mine has it on."

"I've admired that suit in the window two or three times but I'll be GIGGLED if I thought it could be bought for the price he told me he paid." "Got anything like it?" "Why don't you put prices on them in the window?"

"WHO MADE THE SUIT ANYWAY?"

"It's a Schloss Bros. & Co. Suit."
